How Greekey Enjoyed the Sermon at SALT LAKE .- Horace is a philosopher without poubt, and the way he enjoyed the Sab bath at Salt Lake, a correspondent of the Syracuse Standard relates as follows:

We attended the Morman Church this morning. Preaching by Elder Orson Pratt. Horace Greeley was present, and sat inside the railing with the twelve apostles. Mr. Bernheisel sat on one side, Judge Phelps on the other, and Heber C. Kimball in front. Horace took an exhausted survey of the female part of the house, cocked his eye up at the speaker as if he were looking at a giraffe, braced himself against one saint, leaned his head against another, and went sound asleep, as if he had been in bed, with his mouth wide open! I never felt so proud of my native land as I did when I saw its able representative treating the whole d-d nonsense with silent contempt, by "rolling into the arms of Murphy."

Hearing a physician remark that a small blow will break the nose, a rustic exclaimed, Well, I dunno 'bout that. I've blowed my nose a great many times, and I've never broke it yet."

He who is impressed with good principles when young, will never be entirely destitute of a sense of virtue.

OPFICE AT THE EMPORIA HOUSE.
WITH THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE New Years I wish to return my hearty thanks for the liberal support and encouragement that has been extended to me in my business for the past two years ago, not with the expectation of realizing a fortune, but with the hope of contributing some thing towards the settlement and improvement of this beautiful valley, by means of direct personal effort, and by furnishing information to those at the West. I have endeavored to keep steadily in view the Future of this town and country, and by means of considerable labor and expense, regardless of present profit, my business is now established upon a firm and reliable basis; and I can offer to all who entrust their business to my care, an intimate knowledge of the country, its inhabitants, and their circumstances, derived from extensive travel, and constant intercourse with settlers, upon and since their arrival. I claim to be thoroughly conversant with the wants and expense. The professional services in the labor of rieding at night as much as possible.
